

Narrative Medicine – Handout for Emeritus Faculty Lecture December 9, 2020

Carol EH Scott-Conner MD PhD MBA Professor Emeritus of Surgery

carol-scott-conner@uiowa.edu

The Examined Life Conference – held annually at the Carver College of Medicine.

<http://examinedlifeconference.com>

The Examined Life Literary Journal – published annually. Sold at Prairie Lights. Information available at:

<http://theexaminedlifejournal.com>

Carver College of Medicine Annual Creative Writing Anthology – available at:

<https://medicine.uiowa.edu/md/student-support/opportunities-growth/writing-and-humanities-program/creative-writing-contest-and>

Dr Rita Charon's Jefferson Lecture:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7yI0rdQEAj8>

Rita Charon Narrative Medicine: Honoring the Stories of Illness Oxford University Press, 2006.

Columbia University Program in Narrative Medicine:

<https://sps.columbia.edu/academics/masters/narrative-medicine#:~:text=Program%20Options%20%20%20Program%20Option%20,Time%20Commitment%20Up%20to%203%20years%2C%20part-time%20>

Lenoir-Rhyne Program in Narrative Healthcare:

<https://narrativehealthcare.net>

(also contains a variety of resources for narrative medicine)

Fournier and Pribaz (eds) The Healer's Burden: Stories and Poems of Professional Grief Carver College of Medicine, 2020.